

MISSION: HAITI 2013

PRAYER CALENDAR

MONDAY, JAN. 21 – Today the team will travel from Rochester, N.Y. through New York City to Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, then on to Pedernales near the Haitian border.

TUESDAY, JAN. 22 – Border crossing today. We will arrive in the village of Malasi and set up our camp.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 23 – The team will set up the EMT (medical tent) and prepare for the clinic. We will also visit the school children and begin our outreach into the surrounding area.

THURSDAY, JAN. 24 – Clinic begins today. Many will come from near and far to be examined. Part of the team will trek to Gentilhomme to visit the children, show the Jesus film, and meet with Pastor Trezin.

FRIDAY, JAN. 25 – The health clinic continues. People from Gentilhomme will be seen. We will do more outreach and show the Jesus film in the evening.

SATURDAY, JAN. 26 – The monthly seminary will be held today for pastors and leaders from all over the area. The clinic continues for part of the day, and then we will conduct house calls for those who may not be well enough to come to the clinic.

SUNDAY, JAN. 27 – The team will worship at the Monte Pou Kris (Climbing For Christ in Creole) church in Malasi. Afterward, the ladies will lead a women’s gathering in which health and hygiene will be discussed as well as some spiritual encouragements.

MONDAY, JAN. 28 – This is the final day of our health clinic. The school children will enjoy a lesson, some crafts and the children’s version of the Jesus film as well.

TUESDAY, JAN. 29 – The team will travel to the village of Mare Pitre, where C4C has been conducting outreach over the past few months. We will meet with the new believers and show the Jesus film in the evening.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 30 – Today the team will cross back over the border to Pedernales. Then the team will travel to Jimani, the border town in which C4C’s fourth church on the island is being built.

THURSDAY, JAN. 31 – The team will conduct children’s lessons at the school in Jimani, and discuss and pray over the future plans.

FRIDAY, FEB. 1 – Today the team travels from Jimani to Santo Domingo, then flies to JFK and on to each one’s respective home.
