

CLIMBING FOR CHRIST

Mission: Kilimanjaro 2015 (March 9 – 16)

Prayer Bulletin

Team Members:

Gary Fallesen, Jordan Rowley, Damson Samson

Objectives:

- To continue our work of equipping and encouraging Christian guides, porters and cooks who make their living on Mount Kilimanjaro to evangelize among their largely non-Christian clientele as well as their fellow guides, porters and cooks (50% of whom are Muslim).
- To follow-up on C4C's November 2014 "Fishers of Men" evangelism conference and evaluate outreach from the current climbing season.
- To pray and plan about the future direction of our work on Kilimanjaro with the local C4C membership.

Tentative Itinerary:

March 9– 11

Gary and Jordan will travel from Rochester, NY, USA to Tanzania, leaving Monday evening and arriving Wednesday morning. Damson will make his journey from Malawi to Tanzania at an earlier time.

March 12-14

The team will spend time praying with the C4C Kilimanjaro Chapter leaders and planning for future work. In addition, they will meet with those who attended last November's evangelism conference in hopes of evaluating its effectiveness and future training needs.

March 15-16

Damson will continue working with the Kilimanjaro guides and porters for a period of time, while Gary and Jordan make their way from Kilimanjaro to Kathmandu.

Prayer Points:

- Safety for Gary and Jordan as they travel to Tanzania and then on to Nepal, and for Damson as he makes his way from and back home to Malawi.
- An incredibly fruitful time of prayer and planning with the leaders of the C4C Kilimanjaro chapter.
- All of our Kilimanjaro members to be encouraged and inspired to share the Good News of Jesus Christ – especially with those they work with on the mountain.
- Many open doors, open hearts, divine appointments.
